Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Shareholder Rights Plan

On September 26, 2013, the shareholders of Open Text Corporation (the "Company") approved the continuation, amendment and restatement of the shareholder rights plan (the "Amended Rights Plan") that the Company and Computershare Investor Services Inc. (the "Rights Agent") originally entered into as of December 2, 2010. Upon such shareholder approval, the Amended Rights Plan was entered into as of September 26, 2013. The Rights Agent also acts as transfer agent for the Company, as trustee to the Company's employee benefit trust and from time to time in connection with acquisitions, as escrow agent for the Company.

The Amended Rights Plan continues (with the changes described below) a right (which may only be exercised if a person acquires control of 20% or more of the Company's common shares) for each shareholder, other than the person that acquires 20% or more of the common shares, to acquire additional common shares at one-half of the market price at the time of exercise. The primary objectives of the Amended Rights Plan are to ensure that, in the context of a bid for control of the Company through an acquisition of the common shares, the Company's Board of Directors has sufficient time to assess alternatives for maximizing shareholder value as it considers in its judgment to be in the best interests of the Company, including: continued implementation of the Company's long-term strategic plans, as these may be modified by the Company from time to time; to provide adequate time for competing bids to emerge; to ensure that shareholders have an equal opportunity to participate in such a bid and to give them adequate time to properly assess the bid; and lessen the pressure to tender typically encountered by a securityholder of an issuer that is subject to a bid.

The changes to the Amended Rights Plan approved by the Company's shareholders on September 26, 2013 are as follows:

The definition of "control", which is used in the determination of a person's ownership of common shares, has been narrowed to apply only to control of a corporation, which would not apply, for example, to control of other entities such as limited partnerships or trusts. The purpose of this modification is to minimize concerns that the Amended Rights Plan may be inadvertently triggered or triggered as a result of an aggregation of holdings of investment funds or trusts under common management or otherwise related in circumstances in which such funds or trusts are not participating in an acquisition of common shares. To the extent that any such fund or trust acts jointly or in concert with a person that acquires common shares, their common shares will, subject to certain exceptions, be aggregated for the purposes of the Amended Rights Plan;

The provisions of the Amended Rights Plan which address the effective date and shareholder review of the Amended Rights Plan have been revised to specify the shareholder approval required to continue the Amended Rights Plan in 2016 by any stock exchange on which the common shares may then be listed. The Amended Rights Plan provides that (i) if required by the rules and regulations of any stock exchange on which the common shares are then listed, at or prior to the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company in 2016, provided that a Flip-in Event (as defined in the Amended Rights Plan) has not occurred prior to such time, the Board of Directors shall submit a resolution ratifying the continued existence of the Amended Rights Plan to all holders of common shares for their consideration and, if thought advisable, approval; and (ii) if such approval is not required by the rules and regulations of any stock exchange on which the common shares are then listed, at or prior to the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company in 2016, provided that a Flip-in Event has not occurred prior to such time, the Board of Directors shall submit a resolution ratifying the continued existence of the Amended Rights Plan to the Independent Shareholders (as defined in the Amended Rights Plan) for their consideration and, if thought advisable, approval; and Amendments of an administrative nature have been incorporated into the Amended Rights Plan to address other non-substantive amendments of a "house-keeping" nature to permit greater clarity and consistency.

The Amended Rights Plan will remain in force until the earlier of the Termination Time (the time at which the right to exercise rights shall terminate pursuant to the Amended Rights Plan) and the termination of the annual meeting of the shareholders in the year 2016 unless at or prior to such meeting the Company's shareholders ratify the continued existence of the Amended Rights Plan, in which case the Amended Rights Plan would expire at the earlier of the Termination Time and the termination of the 2019 annual meeting of the Company's shareholders. A copy of the Amended Rights Plan is attached as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or By-laws: Change in Fiscal Year.

On September 26, 2013, the shareholders of the Company approved, ratified and confirmed certain amendments to By-Law 1 of the Company (the "By-laws"). The amendments are intended to: (i) provide for advance notice of nominations of directors (the "Advance Notice Amendments") in circumstances where nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors are made by shareholders other than pursuant to a requisition of a meeting made pursuant to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act ("CBCA") or a shareholder proposal made pursuant to the provisions of the CBCA. The Advance Notice Amendments fix deadlines by which a shareholder must notify the Company of nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors and also stipulate that certain information about any proposed nominee be included in such a notice in order for it to be valid; (ii) provide for uncertificated securities evidenced through an electronic, book-based, direct registration service or other non-certificated entry or position on the register of shareholders to be kept by the Company (in addition to common shares being evidenced by security certificates); (iii) clarify that the indemnification of directors and officers of the Company pursuant to the By-laws is in addition to, and does not limit, any other rights of indemnification of the directors and officers; (iv) permit notices to be provided by email or other forms of electronic message; and (v) implement other changes of a "house-keeping" nature. The Board of Directors do not consider the amendments to the By-laws to be material and the amendments do not impact the substantive rights of the Company's common shares.

A copy of the By-laws is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
