Communication to Brokers

I am pleased to share some important and exciting news with you today: we have agreed to combine with PartnerRe in a merger of equals, creating a broadly diversified global specialty insurance and reinsurance company with expanded market presence, gross premiums in excess of $10 billion, and total capitalization above $14 billion.

This transaction is the outgrowth of many months of strategic planning and careful review by our board of directors. We believe this merger with PartnerRe represents a uniquely compelling opportunity for both of our companies. The transaction will leverage the complementary strengths of both AXIS and PartnerRe to create an organization with the size and breadth to enhance product and service offerings, maximize growth opportunities, optimize portfolios, and deliver both economies of scale and capital efficiencies.

The new combined company will have substantial presence and industry-leading capabilities across a broad range of business lines. The merger will elevate us to become a top five global P&C reinsurer and leading broker-based reinsurer. Our combined companies will write approximately $2.5 billion in specialty insurance premium, and our successful Accident & Health initiative will be augmented by PartnerRe's Life & Health business, to form a $1.5 billion Life, Accident & Health operation all with significantly enhanced strategic flexibility.

The combination of AXIS and PartnerRe will bring together two market-leading insurance and reinsurance businesses with complementary marketplace strengths and a shared reputation for outstanding underwriting, service and financial strength. We will have deeper resources to serve you and our common clients by drawing on the extensive expertise of our respective organizations' underwriting and client service teams. As a single organization, we will continue to deliver exceptional quality and seamless service in the areas of global reinsurance, specialty insurance and life, accident and health. Together we expect to be able to offer a broader range of services and greater capacity across a wider global footprint. Further highlights regarding the combination of AXIS and PartnerRe can be found in the attached press release we just issued.

This is a fantastic opportunity for us to create a market leader in Insurance, Reinsurance and Life, Accident and Health. I look forward to speaking with you soon to discuss how, together, we will make this vision a reality.

With best regards,

Albert

PartnerRe Chairman, Jean-Paul L. Montupet will be non-executive chairman of the combined company. AXIS Capital CEO Albert A. Benchimol will serve as CEO of the combined company. The new company will have a 14-person Board of Directors, consisting of seven AXIS Capital directors and seven PartnerRe directors, including Messrs. Montupet and Benchimol. Current AXIS Capital Chairman, Michael A. Butt will continue to serve on the Board as Chairman Emeritus.

Mr. Benchimol stated: This transformational combination will leverage the complementary strengths of both companies and create an organization with the size and breadth to enhance product and service offerings, maximize growth opportunities, optimize portfolios, and deliver both economies of scale and capital efficiencies. The combined company will have three strongly positioned businesses – a top-five global reinsurer, a $2.5 billion specialty insurance underwriting business, and a highly successful and growing life, accident and health franchise – all with increased strategic flexibility. As a top five global reinsurer with leading positions in a number of specialty lines, we will be strongly positioned to turn the challenges presented by the structural changes in the reinsurance market into opportunities.

Mr. Benchimol continued, For our clients and brokers, this transaction brings together two companies with outstanding underwriting talent and service to deliver more comprehensive solutions backed by the financial strength they have come to rely on from both companies. I look forward to working closely together to make this vision a reality, while achieving diversified and consistent earnings growth for our shareholders.

In connection with the transaction, Costas Miranthis will step down as CEO of PartnerRe and as a member of the PartnerRe Board, effective today. At that time, current PartnerRe Director David Zwiener will assume the position of interim CEO of PartnerRe until the completion of the transaction.

Mr. Zwiener has been a director of PartnerRe since July 2009 and, prior to this transaction, was the Chairman of the PartnerRe Audit Committee. Mr. Zwiener has extensive executive level experience in both the insurance and financial services sectors. Between 2000 and 2007, Mr. Zwiener was President and Chief Operating Officer of the property and casualty operations at Hartford Financial Services Group Inc. Most recently, he was CFO at Wachovia Corporation.

Jean-Paul L. Montupet, Chairman of PartnerRe stated: On behalf of the entire board of directors, I want to express my appreciation to Costas Miranthis for successfully leading PartnerRe for the past four years and positioning the Company to be able to move into this exciting new phase. PartnerRe has benefitted greatly from his leadership and guidance and we wish him well in his next endeavor. This is an exciting opportunity that offers tremendous potential with many benefits for PartnerRe, our clients, brokers and shareholders.

Michael A. Butt, Chairman of AXIS Capital stated: I have for a long time, since 1993, been an admirer of PartnerRe and what it has achieved. I am delighted therefore that we can now combine our businesses and people to create an even more exciting future.

Costas Miranthis commented: It has been my pleasure to serve as PartnerRe's CEO as we continued to build upon its leadership position in reinsurance. This merger with AXIS Capital offers a unique opportunity to enhance PartnerRe's scale in the reinsurance sector and to enter the primary insurance market with a high quality partner with a global franchise. This is the right step for PartnerRe at the right time - squarely addressing the strategic imperatives that today's markets are demanding. I want to thank the PartnerRe Board and all of my colleagues for their support and contribution to our success. I am confident that the new company will enjoy an exciting future.

The company headquarters will be located in Bermuda, and it will have a strategic presence on five continents in 39 distinct geographic locations worldwide.

Given the similar disciplined underwriting cultures of both organizations, the combined entity will draw on the talented group of leaders from both companies. A number of senior positions have been identified. Emmanuel Clarke will be CEO, Reinsurance; Peter Wilson will be CEO, Insurance; Chris DiSipio will be CEO, Life, Accident and Health; and John (Jay) Nichols will be responsible for Strategic Business Development and Capital Solutions. Joseph Henry will be CFO and Bill Babcock will be Deputy CFO and Lead Integration Officer. Mr. Babcock will assume the role of CFO upon Mr. Henry's retirement in July 2016.

Positioning and Financial Benefits

The merger will create one of the largest global specialty insurance and reinsurance companies with strong positions in specialty markets and improved strategic flexibility across all specialty insurance and reinsurance business lines. The combined company will have a top-5 market position among reinsurance companies with combined gross premiums written of $7 billion and will be the leading broker-based reinsurer. This is complemented by a global specialty insurance business with $2.5 billion in gross premiums and the creation of a meaningful player in the life, accident and health markets, with total gross premiums written of $1.5 Billion with particular strength in the U.S. A&H reinsurance market. The combined company is expected to have:

The combined company is also expected to have strong cash flows and capital efficiencies to re-invest in its specialty franchises and growth businesses, and to return capital to shareholders.

The merger is expected to achieve at least $200 million in annual pre-tax cost synergies in the first 18 months of operations and to be accretive to EPS and ROE for the shareholders of both companies. The companies are confident that the targeted integration benefits are achievable.

The transaction is expected to close in the second half of 2015, subject to approval by the shareholders of both companies, regulatory clearance and customary closing conditions.
