Dear Colleagues,

As you may have recently heard, EXOR, a European investment company based in Milan, has announced that they have made an unsolicited proposal to acquire PartnerRe Ltd.

We are fully committed to our combination with PartnerRe, which brings together two independently strong companies to create one broadly diversified global specialty insurance and reinsurance company whose scale, capital and enhanced market presence will form a powerhouse within the industry.

We expect PartnerRe's board to evaluate the EXOR proposal and to make a recommendation to their shareholders in due course. We will have no further comment on the EXOR proposal at this time.

For now, nothing changes. We will continue to execute on AXIS's business plans for 2015 to meet the expectations of our existing shareholders while moving forward on integration planning already underway with PartnerRe to deliver a combined company positioned to deliver superior and sustainable value to all stakeholders.

We will continue to provide you with updates on the transaction where possible. We remind you not to comment beyond what we have publicly disclosed.

As always, our priority will be to maintain the highest standards for our work on behalf of clients day in and day out.

Thank you for your dedication and for your individual contributions to our collective success.

Best Regards,

Albert
