Subject: AXIS Capital and PartnerRe Amalgamation Update

Dear AXIS Colleagues,

We were very pleased to announce this morning that we have, together with our future colleagues at PartnerRe, reaffirmed our commitment to the merger agreement we made in January. I realize that the last few months have presented many challenges – first and foremost, the challenge of uncertainty. While weathering uncertainty is very much our business, and one in which we excel, I would like to once again commend you for continuing to do excellent work under unusual circumstances. I knew before this began, and am doubly sure now, that we boast some of the most talented, experienced and cool-headed professionals in our industry. Thank you all.

We have renewed our vows with PartnerRe by putting in place some revised terms to the previous agreement, namely: upon the completion of the amalgamation, PartnerRe shareholders will receive a one-time cash dividend of $11.50 per share. Other than this addition, the other details of the transaction remain unchanged. Also unchanged is our belief that this is the correct and best course of action for our companies. My enthusiasm remains unchanged, and is shared by the executive teams at both organizations.

As we have already communicated to you, we have made what I consider to be strong progress on integration planning within a relatively short period of time. The first phase of integration planning, which focused on the design of high-level target operating models by business and functional leaders, is now complete. AXIS Capital and PartnerRe continue to expect expense synergies from the merger to be in excess of $200 million. The second phase of integration planning, focused on bringing these operating models to fruition, is now in progress. The progress made thus far and the ease with which our cultures are coming together only serve to increase our excitement about the possibilities for our new company. Our integration planning is succeeding better even than we had planned, and I think we all will be proud of the results.

In conclusion, I'd like to thank you once again for your continued focus on your business plans and your efforts to maximize business retention, while also undertaking the work required for us to take advantage of this transformation opportunity.

Attached you will find a copy of the joint press release that we issued with PartnerRe earlier this morning, which includes details for a teleconference to take place at 9 AM Eastern to discuss this matter in more detail. I encourage you to join that discussion. Our Town Hall, currently scheduled for Tuesday, May 5th at 9:30 AM Eastern, will be another opportunity for you to hear more about the transaction and ask any questions you might have.

AXIS Capital and PartnerRe Reaffirm Commitment to Merger

Agreement; PartnerRe Shareholders to Receive Special Cash

Dividend in Connection with Transaction Close

Merger on Target to Close in Third Quarter of 2015

PEMBROKE, Bermuda, May 4, 2015 — AXIS Capital Holdings Limited ("AXIS Capital") (NYSE:AXS) and PartnerRe Ltd. ("PartnerRe") (NYSE:PRE) today reaffirmed their commitment to the companies' January 25, 2015 definitive amalgamation agreement and announced that PartnerRe shareholders will receive a special one-time cash dividend of $11.50 per share in connection with and conditioned upon the closing of the merger.

The original consideration terms of the AXIS Capital/PartnerRe amalgamation agreement remain unchanged. PartnerRe shareholders will receive 2.18 common shares of the combined company for each PartnerRe common share they own, and AXIS Capital shareholders will receive one common share of the combined company for each AXIS Capital common share they own. Upon completion of the transaction, shareholders of PartnerRe and of AXIS Capital will own approximately 51.5 percent and 48.5 percent of the combined company, respectively.

Over the last several months, AXIS Capital and PartnerRe have made significant progress on integration planning. The first phase of the integration planning, which focused on the design of high-level target operating models by business and functional leaders, is now complete. AXIS Capital and PartnerRe continue to expect expense synergies from the merger to be in excess of $200 million. The second phase of integration, which is focused on bringing these operating models to fruition, is in progress.

The strategic, operational and financial merits of a united PartnerRe and AXIS are significant and will create substantial value for all shareholders, particularly given the operating and capital synergies that can be realized by the combination of our two businesses," said Jean-Paul L. Montupet, Chairman of PartnerRe. "We are pleased to be moving ahead with our partner AXIS Capital.

AXIS Capital and PartnerRe have already made significant progress toward realizing our shared vision of a broadly diversified global specialty insurance and reinsurance company with the scale, capital and market presence to compete at the highest levels of our industry," said Albert Benchimol, President and CEO of AXIS Capital. "Throughout this process, we have only grown more confident about the transformational opportunity provided by this merger of equals, and we believe the combination of AXIS Capital and PartnerRe will provide our respective shareholders, clients and brokers with compelling value both now and in the years ahead.

Today's enhanced merger terms make sense for both sets of shareholders," said Michael A. Butt, Chairman of the Board of AXIS Capital. "Our merger of equals offers shareholders real and deliverable value, and is based on a compelling strategic rationale.

Both companies have a long track record of executing capital management strategies for the benefit of their stakeholders," added Mr. Benchimol. "The special cash dividend announced today does not change our plans to resume share repurchase activities immediately following the closing of the merger. In fact, our intention remains to return the accumulated operating earnings of the combined companies since January 1, 2015 as appropriate and in a manner consistent with past practices.

The merger is expected to be accretive to EPS and ROE for the shareholders of both companies starting in 2016.

The transaction remains on track to close in the third quarter of 2015, subject to approvals by the shareholders of both companies, regulatory clearances and customary closing conditions.
