Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 31, 2016, NewStar Financial, Inc. ("NewStar" or the "Company"), NewStar Business Credit LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("NSBC") and Sterling National Bank, a national banking association ("Purchaser"), entered into a Unit Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") pursuant to which the Company sold all of the outstanding membership interests in NSBC to Purchaser. The sale of NSBC, NewStar's asset-based lending business, represents a continuation of the Company's transformation from a bank-styled, diversified commercial finance company into a more specialized middle market direct lender with a focus on managing assets for institutional investors. The net purchase price paid at closing by Purchaser to the Company was approximately $112.0 million, net of repayment of NSBC indebtedness (estimated to be approximately $237.9 million in the aggregate) and transaction fees and expenses. The purchase price will be subject to adjustment after closing based on a determination of final working capital at the closing date. The Company expects to recognize a gain on the sale in the first quarter of 2016.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by the parties. The Company and Purchaser are obligated, subject to certain limitations, to indemnify the other for certain customary and other specified matters, including breaches of representations and warranties, nonfulfillment or breaches of covenants and for certain third party claims.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement which has been filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1. The Purchase Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, NSBC or Purchaser. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules provided by the Company to Purchaser in connection with the signing of the Purchase Agreement. These disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Purchase Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company and Purchaser, rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement may not constitute the actual state of facts about the Company, NSBC, or Purchaser. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, NSBC or Purchaser. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, at the time of the closing, Purchaser repaid or caused to be repaid, on behalf of NSBC, all outstanding indebtedness of NSBC and its subsidiaries, prior to paying the balance of the purchase price (less transaction expenses) to the Company. In connection with the repayment of the NSBC indebtedness, the obligations of NSBC, the Company and any subsidiaries of NSBC under the following warehouse agreements were terminated as of March 31, 2016: (a) that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement, dated as of June 19, 2015, by and among NSBC, the Company, NewStar Business Funding 2010-1 LLC, Autobahn Funding Company LLC, DZ Bank AG Deutsche Zentral-Genossenschaftsbank Frankfurt AM Main, Keybank National Association and U.S. Bank National Association, together with a related performance guaranty of the Company, and (b) that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of December 7, 2012, by and among NewStar Business Funding 2012-1 LLC, NSBC, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, and U.S. Bank National Association, as subsequently amended as of April 1, 2014, May 5, 2014, December 8, 2014 and June 19, 2015.
